Free to play ? Fun ? Is this real life ?. If you are looking for an action shooter with team cooperation where mindless running will get you killed this is a game for You. On most difficulties the games enemies coming in waves enforce cooperation. Firing lanes start to matter and even when you are not on point but securing the back You feel like Your job matters.

The game offers 8 marines to pick from. A pair of each of 4 archetypes. The medic, whos main role is to heal any damage and cure infestations. The Autogunner whos there to push the group forward or to set up supressing fire defending the group. The demolitions marine is best suited to dealing with heavier targets with the use of flamethrowers, mines grenades fire traps and the mean end of a shotgun. Finaly theres the technician for those who want to make the missions easier by welding doors and hacking security and objectives.

Individual skill is rewarded with all of these archetypes without the loss of sense of benefiting from the teamwork of entire group.

The setting pays homage to classic movies and games of the alien franchise yet remains its own kind of alien style with a bit more arcade look. The topdown camera gives a more tactical feel for the gameplay in comparission to first person. Each marine has his own quips and oneliners, and character.

Since its free i cannot see how you wouldnt recommend it.. Absolutely fantastic game. Just needs a bit more variety of characters and weapons (and obviously levels) but this needs more funding. It's so much fun to play with a group. You get to find out who the scaredy cats are.. a good game. Best game for bug execution :D

Years ago I created my steam account just to play this game.. The most awkward game of all time but still enjoyable.. holy moly at first i only downloaded this game for the tf2 hat but the more i played it the more im in love with it. this game is toooooooooooooooooooooooooooooo good. This is one of those rare game's that you can replay without it feeling dull the second time. And weapon progress is nice and seen its f2p you have to try it its really worth your time.

Its just good give it a try. Was extremely fun when it came out and still just as much fun.. WAIT!

For those that dont know, which is likely most of you because it's kind of underground. There is a BETTER SECOND GAME coming out this year!!

Just a heads up for the Alien Swarm fans. It is expected to be released early this year! If you liked the first or maybe haven't tried it, now's the time to decide. You've got nothing to lose. Positives

It's free.

You kill alien bugs.

Replayability with different weapons, and characters, or difficulties.

Achievements make you feel like you achieved something. (Hah)

Negatives

Died again!

Again!

Gah!
